

Ticketing information for Arts Festival Performances

Please view the Festival programme for performance times and venues. All performances are FREE, but some will be ticketed for maximum audience number purposes. Tickets are not required for entry to any of the exhibitions. Tickets can be reserved for collection on the door, or may be obtained on the day, on a first come, first served basis at the venues. Seat numbers are not allocated.

To reserve tickets for Godmanchester performances e mail Sofia at comrades.club@gmail.com.

Your reservation will be confirmed and tickets will be made available for you to collect on the door. You can also reserve tickets in person by going to the Comrades Club on, Sunday 3rd March and Saturday 9th March during normal opening hours.

For Huntingdon performances contact Anna Best at bridge.artsfestival@gmail.com.

Your reservation will be confirmed and tickets will be made available for you to collect on the door. You can also reserve tickets in person by going to Huntingdon Library on Saturday 23rd March and Saturday 30th March between 11.00 a.m. and 2.00 p.m.

To reserve a place at the Creative Writing and Poetry workshops please contact the Library direct on 0345 045 5225 or email your.library@cambridgeshire.gov.uk